SCHOLARSHIPS FOR SUMMER STUDY ABROAD
In Recognition of Superior Achievement in the Study of the French Language and Literature

THE JOSEPH W. YEDLICKA AWARDS
• Full tuition summer-session scholarship—seven weeks including housing, half-board and some additional living expenses—awarded by The American University of Paris and Pi Delta Phi
• Full tuition summer-session scholarship—six weeks including housing and board—Aix-en-Provence awarded by the Institute for American Universities College
• Full tuition summer-session scholarship—six weeks including housing and board—Aix-en-Provence funded by Pi Delta Phi

The above awards are accompanied by a Pi Delta Phi Travel Grant of up to $1,500 to help cover transportation costs for one round-trip ticket from the U.S. to the host site only; the travel stipend does not cover additional or post summer-session travel.

THE MARY E. GUTERMUTH AWARD
• Full tuition summer-session scholarship—five weeks including housing and board—the University of Québec at Chicoutimi awarded by Pi Delta Phi.

ELIGIBILITY
• Current Regular member of an active chapter who has not previously received a Pi Delta Phi scholarship; students who have not been inducted into the Society prior to the application deadline are not eligible.
• Currently enrolled full-time in an undergraduate field of study.
• U.S. Citizen or permanent resident.
• Preference is given to applicants who have not previously studied in a Francophone country.
• Preference is also based on financial need and lack of opportunity.

DATES AND DEADLINES
• Nov. 1—application deadline including all of the above materials (postmarked no later than Nov. 15); note: FAXED applications are NOT accepted
• Feb. 16—scholarship winners will be informed
• Sept. 1—scholarship winners are required to submit a report about their study abroad experience and thank you letter in writing to the Executive Director

APPLICATION MUST INCLUDE THE FOLLOWING
1. The Application Form (this document); signed by the Chapter Moderator.
2. Letter by the applicant, in English or French, stating clearly and briefly his or her qualifications. Applicants must address any financial need and any lack of opportunity, must address any previous study abroad, and must state that they are able to accept an award for summer study abroad (five-to-seven weeks).
3. Three letters of nomination; the third or second recommendation (in the case where the Moderator is also recommending as a teacher) may be from a professor in another discipline. If the Moderator is also a professor of French recommending as a teacher, he/she should indicate that the letter serves both capacities. The Moderator must attest that the candidate is willing and able (physically and psychologically) to travel and to study abroad, and that the candidate meets all eligibility requirements.
4. Official transcript(s).

The Faculty Chapter Moderator certifies that the named Applicant meets all scholarship eligibility requirements:
