Federal Reserve Challenge Scholarship Application

The Mount St. Mary’s University Federal Reserve Challenge Scholarship, funded by the PNC Foundation, is awarded to four incoming freshmen, of any major, with the commitment to participate in the Federal Reserve Challenge Team at the University. The scholarship is valued at $28,000 and will be distributed at the rate of $7,000 per year for four years.

Recipients of the scholarship will be required to participate in the Federal Reserve Challenge Team at Mount St. Mary’s University. All awards are contingent upon participation in this program. Additionally, students must maintain a 3.0 GPA while at the Mount in order to retain the scholarship each year. Please be aware that receiving this scholarship may affect eligibility for need-based aid. This scholarship is in addition to a previously awarded merit scholarship.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES:
All application materials must be postmarked by February 1, 2015. The applicant must be an accepted student of Mount St. Mary’s University at the time of application.

Compose a four page essay in which you
1) Assess the causes and nature of the current US and global economic and financial crisis, and;
2) Assume the role of senior advisor to the Chairman of the Federal Reserve Board and make comprehensive recommendations.

Submit the Federal Reserve Challenge Scholarship Application and supporting essay to:
